

BEST PRACTICES – I

1. Title of the Practice:

Engaging Students in Quality Enhancement Process.

2. Objectives of the Practice:

- To develop the institutional culture to engage students and strengthen the students-teacher relationship further.
- To create teaching learning process more flexible and to enhance the knowledge of students on various academic & socio-legal phenomena that will reflect into creation of skills in them and also become an assistive tool in their advocacy practice.
- To help the College in getting the students' insight on key institutional, academic and administrative aspects.

3. Context:

The College alumni have widely spread across the globe. They are working in many fields and streams of advocacy. Their practical knowledge and skills are necessary to reach to our present day students. Their participation becomes inevitable in the process of quality enhancement in higher education. In order to inculcate our student with academic knowledge, global information, legal skills which are quintessential in legal practice and communication, the College organizes in this year various lectures on enhancement of legal skills in advocacy practice.

4. The Practice:

Students, teaching and non-teaching staff participate in teaching learning process that enhance the knowledge of students on various academic & socio-legal phenomena that will reflect into creation of skills in their advocacy practice. Following lectures were organized:-

1. Adv. Deshpande delivered lecture on “Procedural Aspects of DRT & Consumer Forum”
2. Adv. Kelly Thirah delivered lecture on “Legal Education & Law Practice: A Comparison between USA & India”
3. Adv. Abhijeet Kapase, senior advocate from Kolhapur spoke on “Advocacy Skills” required for lawyers.
4. Adv. Santosh Shaha, senior lawyer also addressed College students on ‘ preparation of Wills”

5. Evidence of Success:

It has been observed that the students have shown keen interest in understanding the quality initiatives of the College. Many of them express willingness to organize various lectures for their skill & capacity development. Thus all of students participate in practical oriented teaching learning process through various lecture delivered on advocacy skills and practice in various courts and tribunals and after successfully participation students can get certificate of attendance from the College.

5. Problems Encountered & Resources Required:

There is no problem encountered so far by the College in performing these activities.
