CIVIL CHAMBER VISIT AT ADV. SANTOSH. A. SHAH AND ASSOCIATES

Date: 03rd February 2019

Under the rules of part IV of Bar Council Of India On 03rd February 2019, Sunday five students from V NLC and III LLB of Shahaji Law College, Kolhapur visited the Chamber of Adv. Santosh Shah Sir.

There, Adv. Shah Sir and Neelam Gandhi madam gave a guidance and information about the advocacy.

Madam told that this is a profession and not a business or service. It should be judged on the basis of work, character, job satisfaction and not a wealth.

Madam even taught us how to use All India Reporter and also told how to find a certain reference case laws of AIR in computer as well as in books. She even told the institutions of the civil suits and also told the procedure from first as to filing a plaint to the end till execution of decree by Court.

She showed the PPT on 'what are requirements as needed in an advocate' such as hard work, role of senior, ethics, time management, etc. And also told the opportunities in this field of advocacy as in litigation in Labour Court, in Consumer Court, in Civil and Criminal sides, etc; and also in non- litigation as in IPR, Conveyancing, Revenue Department, Legal Audit, etc. There was then interaction between students and Sir.

We are thankful to Shah Sir's Chamber as we got to know different things at his Chamber. And also we are thankful Prof. Dr. M. C. Sheikh who guided us throughout.

CRIMINAL CHAMBER VISIT

AT: ADV. SHIVAJIRAO RANE SIR

Date : 21-01-18

Place : Kolhapur

We the, Third year students of SHAHAJI LAW COLLEGE, kolhapur comprising the batch of 10 students of Three Year Law Course visited the chamber at 9:50 a.m.

It was an excellent opportunity for us to deliberate with the senior advocate on the art of advocacy.

He stressed that honesty and hard work are the two essential qualities of the advocate.

He repeatedly said that submissiveness is not only necessary but also helps to have good impression on the Bench.

The advocate must be well versed with the medical jurisprudence; everyone should follow the court etiquettes. The reading of newspaper and citation is essential.

Last but not least, he advised up to keep calm of mind by meditation.

REPORT OF COURT ATTENDENCE

The Court visit of Roll no. 22 to 31 of New Law Course took place from 1st February to 10th February. It was a proper schedule made by the group members to reach the court at 12.30pm daily after attending the college. We most probably attended the Court of Civil Judge Senior Division to know the matter and to get the idea of proceedings taking place in the proper manner. Most of time the Judge use to give the knowledge of court proceeding by inviting us to his/her chamber. The judge gave the brief face of how to be good lawyer, how to use Bare Act, how to relate the case problem with Sections mentioned on Civil Procedure Code.

Moot Court subject of final year consists of court visit to get briefly the knowledge of court proceedings and to learn the skills, etiquettes, norms and principles of court. The 10 days of court visit plays a vital role in the professional life of every lawyer or the student undergoing law subjects.

We attended the cases of Eqbal Burhonvoddin Sayyad V/s Prakash Sawant which was appeal against the order of lower courts as well as Akaram Ganapati Chawan v/s Netra Raju Jadhav which issued the suit for declaration and cancellation of Sale Deed under code of Civil Procedure.

Through these all cases we came to know who is petitioner or respondent, the steps to be taken before filing the suit, the stages of case in Court, the cross examination, arguments on law points done between lawyers, etc.

On 7th February the Lady Judge who always handles the cases of POCSO gave us permission to visit the special court which is constructed recently for those children who undergoes the tragic sexual offences. The special court had a different structure all together.

The Court visit civil matter from 1st February to 10th February was an extraordinary situation. The working of professional lawyers was been observed by us very well and was an amazing feeling. On 10th February Dr. M. C. Sheikh Sir visited the court at evening and we all students took a group picture with Sheikh Sir and Kolhapur District Court.
